President's Message

Painting, n.: The art of protecting flat surfaces from the weather, and exposing them to the critic.—Ambrose Bierce

Hope you all had a great St. Paddy's Day and a joyous Easter!

Please remember to sell your raffle tickets for the annual show and let us know if you need more.

I have received, by mail, a great opportunity for our club. We have the great honor as a club to be selected by the MFA in Boston to be included in their fall show of works of New England artists. Each club or association will be allowed 2 entries picked by the jurors out of 6 submitted. Those chosen will hang in the food court in the new wing of the museum for 1 month this fall. I will have more specifics at the April meeting about how the EGAC will choose our 6 submissions. These submissions must be in by August 13, 2016. This will be a tremendous opportunity for our club and membership to exhibit and compare our works with our peers throughout New England.

April Meeting Presenter

Guest Artist: Judy Gates

In 1981, Judy combined her passions for art and animals and created Dogues Gallery Original Artworks, where she sells hand painted pillows, slates, keepsake boxes, Christmas ornaments and other products. She paints both purebred and mixed-breed dogs, as well as cats.
