December is our annual holiday meeting... a time of sharing our artwork and our culinary delights. Please join us for a fine evening of friendship. We want to see your latest project or maybe of favorite from the past. All are asked to bring a refreshment, dessert or other light fare. Feel free to bring a guest. Let's end 2008 with a smile.

Exhibits & Member News:

☞ Rose Coppa-D'Amore won second prize in the Cranston Residents show in October at the Cranston Public Library. Congratulations, Rose.

☞ On a sad note - we are sorry to relay that long-time member and fellow artist Noel Vient passed away. He will be sorely missed.

☞ Just a reminder about annual membership dues and thank you to those who have already sent in their renewal.

☞ Wow! We had great attendance - about 57 people - at the November meeting held at T's Restaurant in EG. Anthony Tomaselli gave a lively oil demonstration, which was further inspired by his wonderful artwork hung throughout his restaurant. Great art and great food!

☞ There is a call for artists for "Hope: Celebrating Survivors of Breast Cancer" an exhibit that will run from April 1 to 30, 2009 to be held at The Gallery at Second Stage Studio, 1 Angell Road, Cumberland, RI. Submit up to three wall-mounted pieces inspired by the theme with a short statement or personal narrative for each. $20 donation per entry goes to Breast Health Center at Women & Infants Hospital along with a portion of all sales proceeds. Drop off on March 28 & 29 from 1:00 to 4:00 or by appointment. www.secondstagestudio.com.

Hello all:

Put the last finishing touches on your paintings, frame that photograph and get ready for the annual December show. Remember, drop off is Saturday, November 29th between 9:00 - 12:00 at the Cranston Public Library. Deb Calbro has worked very hard acquiring donations for the raffle so sell those tickets and if you haven't mailed the money and stubs yet, make sure you bring them to the library either the 29th when you drop off your work or at the opening on December 7th. Have you paid your dues?

We have enclosed a preliminary calendar of events scheduled for the EGAC "50th" Anniversary celebration. The committee has been meeting often and working diligently; as you can see there are quite a few events planned thus far. We are working on more art classes and more activities and each month you will receive an update with plans as they are finalized. Please contact a committee person to sign up for any of the events that you are interested in attending. The art class scheduled with Principato has limited space available and the bus trip will fill up fast. The class and bus trip are on a first come first serve basis, so reserve your spot early. The Boston trip by train is quite an adventure with Art Stenberg at the helm. So look over your list and make those reservations.

Wishing you and your family a blessed Thanksgiving and I look forward to seeing you at the show.

Nancy
