Exhibits & Member News:

☞ And presenting...our new club officers: Jeannine Anderson, President and Bob Nardi, Vice-President. Congratulations and much success in your new roles. "Thank you" to Nancy and Art for all their hard work. Nancy Moretti is now taking over as Membership Chair. Art Stenberg will continue helping the club as the Website Coordinator. We also now have a Hospitality Chair, June Flori.

Some of our happy group enjoyed a stop at the Metropolitan Museum in NYC during our recent bus trip.

☞ Are you interested in painting a wooden mailbox? Jan Hromi of the Graduate School of Library Studies at URI is looking for someone to paint a library theme on the 4' x 3' mailbox at the entrance. A small stipend will be paid. If interested, please call 401-874-2878.

☞ Joan Hoyle received an Honorable Mention for her oil painting "Cool Shades Man" at the Annual Member Show of the Waterway Art Association in Callabash, NC. Congratulations, Joan!

☞ Open figure drawing sessions are available on Sunday afternoons from 1:00 to 4:00 at 545 Pawtucket Ave., Room A203, $10 per visit. If you are interested, contact David Delay at daviddelay@aol.com or call him at 521-1974.

☞ There's a new gallery in town - Bottega Gallery & Art Center located at 7595 Post Rd., N. Kingstown, RI. It is a joint venture between our members Bob Nardi and Arlene Pepper and two other artists. Check it out!

☞ Reminder: Esther Chester will be exhibiting at the Cranston Library during July. Opening reception July 11 at 2:30. All members are invited.

☞ Correction: The "Back to Basics" art show opening on June 11 is from 6:00 to 8:00 pm.

*Enjoy the summer!
See you in September*

New York Bus trip

Saturday, April 25, 2009 at 6:45 am we boarded the bus for New York City leaving the Warwick Mall promptly at 7:00 am. It was a glorious day. There were families, couples, sisters, friends coming together for an adventure. We shared information on the bus and people made plans to meet for walking tours, museum visits, shopping and lunch. Armed with city and subway maps we departed the bus at 10:50 am.

At 6:45 PM we met at St. Patrick's Cathedral where we left promptly at 7:00 PM. Every one was exhausted from the day's adventures, sharing stories, discussing purchases. We settled in for the journey back stopping off at Mac Donald's for a bite. Back on the bus for "popcorn & a movie" and before you knew it were back in Warwick at 11:30 PM.

From the notes and calls, I believe everyone had a good time. I have received numerous requests about making this a yearly event; who knows, it could happen. Sharon our bus driver is ready whenever we are too! We will keep you posted!

Check out our trip on www.youtube.com/v/QzkZiwmlZ4, webloc which I brought to you by Ian Sanderson. What a great job!

East Greenwich High School Scholarship Award

The 2009 East Greenwich Art Club Scholarship will be awarded to Sarah O'Connell.

Sarah is a senior at East Greenwich High School who will be attending Syracuse University's College of Visual and Performing Arts in the fall. Last summer Sarah visited Tanzania, Africa with a volunteer group to build a school and teach English. While there, Sarah documented her trip through pictures, photographing the local people and landscape. At Syracuse, Sarah will be working toward a bachelor of fine arts degree in the University's Department of Transmedia.

Sarah will be awarded her scholarship at the June meeting and she looks forward to participating in the EGAC annual show in December.
