

April 2022

Message from President Dan Lake

Happy Spring!

As forsythia burst forth, soon to be followed by daffodils and a glorious spring, so too has the East Greenwich Art Club burst out of the cold soil of a long winter to bring you bright days ahead.

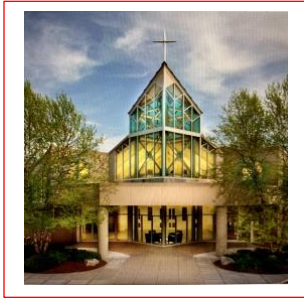

If you missed our first meeting of 2022, you missed an opportunity to observe a show of works by our talented members (see the link below), and to share your wonderful work with others. We finally had time to meet and talk to each other... face to face. We came together in a beautiful new venue and were happy to see new members added to our numbers. Several of them told us that one of the best attributes of our Club is the friendliness that occurs when we talk about our love of art and our experiences with it. Being able to gather once more has allowed us to look close to home for comfort and the peace that comes with showing our personal creations.

We hope you will look forward to the activities we have planned for you! Like the flowers in a spring garden, life is best experienced together, not in isolation. We want to bring our shared love of art to more wonderful people like you! BRING FRIENDS to join us!

Don't miss Ian Mohon on April 5th! Also, meet Mary Capron, our newest member. Together, they will set the stage for our celebration of springtime in Rhode Island!

(To view some of our members' works collected in February you can go to this YouTube location for a four-minute movie:

We meet at 7pm on the first Tuesday of month, except for July, August, & January at our new meeting place: the East Greenwich United Methodist Church, 1558 South County Trail in East Greenwich.

Hospitality for the April evening will be provided by Celeste Chute-Wright, Michele Lilly, Iliana Luchka, Marilyn Mooney, Linda Sanfilippo.

April 5th Presenter: Ian Mohon

Ian Mohon finished his BFA and has spent the last 13 years working within New England's finest art galleries. A painter, photographer and printmaker, Ian's recent work has re-focused on his painting with an emphasis on portraiture both of architecture and of people. Now living in East Greenwich, Rhode Island with his wife and daughter, he splits his time between family and creating new works on a daily basis.

Ian will demonstrate how he creates his work.

Our club offers opportunities to experience painting En Plein Air.

The Plein Air dates and places are as follows:

Saturday, May 21: Clouds Hill, Warwick RI - all day Plein Air Event *

Monday, June 13th: Blithewold Gardens, Bristol RI - 11AM-2PM

Friday, July 15: Roger Williams Park Botanical Center - 11AM-2PM

Tuesday, August 23: Colt State Park Dairy Barn area - 11AM-2PM

info@eastgreenwichartclub.org is the web address where people can ask questions about our East Greenwich Art Club plein air programs.

*The next Plein Air isn't until May 21st and it will be at Clouds Hill in Warwick and it is different because it is sponsored by the Warwick Center for the Arts (not the east Greenwich Art Club) and it is a full all day event. For this May 21st Plein Air event (sponsored by the Warwick Center for the Arts). PLEASE NOTE www.warwickcfa.org is the site you need to go to in order to register at the What's Happening page and then go to the Calendar of Events and click on May 21st for registration information for the Clouds Hill Plein Air Event. There is registration information available there.
