

November Newsletter: Addendum

Here are a few items that did not make the November newsletter:

From Brendan at Crestar:

Next Thursday, November 9th, Crestar will be hosting an art exhibit of work from our staff. Pretty much all of our team, (aside from me) are artists in their own right! So we are very proud to be able to share their work with you.

We will have food and drinks and hopefully some live music. The event will be from 5:30PM to 8:30PM so come by and help us celebrate the awesome talent that happens to work at Crestar!

Kind regards,

Brendan

From member Kathy Gordon:

I'd like to share my next upcoming show at the Courthouse Center for the Arts in Kingston this month. Here's the link:

From Bill Gallagher:

Here is an image similar to Bill's presentation in October. His presentation was well received and he was able to connect with Joan Creamer since they both worked for the same company a while back:
